Community Education Work Council To Hold Annual Meeting, Oct. 17

The annual meeting of the Bethel Area Community Education Work Council will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 17, in the library at Telstar Regional High School at 7:30 p. m. The M.S.A.D. #44 Career Education team will provide the evening's program.

Over the past two years the Education Work Council has actively promoted the establishment of a Career Education emphasis in the local schools. As a result of those efforts a seven member Career Education team was formed and met last summer to plan the M.S.A.D. #44 five year plan for the infusion of Career Education in grades K-12. The five year plan has recently been approved by the school board. The team's presentation will focus on ways by which the community can become involved in the Career Education effort. Active community involvement is seen as critical to a successful Career Education Program in the schools.

A business meeting will follow the Career Education team's presentation. Nominations for next year's officers and directors will be presented by the nominating committee and elections will be held. Several possible options for council development over the next year will be discussed.

Members of the community who are interested in the Career Education activities to be presented by the Career Education team or in the future activities of the Education Work Council are urged to attend.

Public Hearings Scheduled on Basic Skills

Basic Skills Committee Chairman, Dr. Wayne F. Gersen, announced the committee's schedule of public hearings this week, following a meeting at the S. A. D. #44 Teachers Workshop on Friday, Oct. 5.

At their meeting, the Basic Skills Committee reviewed the questions to be used at the public hearings; reviewed the contents of a questionnaire to be distributed in conjunction with the public hearings; and discussed the sites and format of the public hearings.

The testimony taken at the public hearings will focus on the following five questions, derived from the Maine Public Hearings of Basic Skills in 1978:

1. Are you satisfied with the preparation S. A. D. #44 students are receiving in school? If not, specify the subject areas and the grade levels at which students are receiving insufficient preparation.
2. Do you feel that S. A. D. #44 high school graduates have the skills needed to succeed in their adult life outside of school? If not, what skills are lacking and what might be done to ensure that students gain these skills?
3. What should be the standards/requirements for awarding or denying a high school diploma?
4. Who should be responsible for establishing standards/requirements for awarding or denying a high school diploma?
5. Do you believe that all students should receive the same type of high school diploma?

The schedule for the public hearings is as follows: Monday, Oct. 22, Andover Library; Tuesday, Oct. 23, Locke Mills Town Hall; Wednesday, Oct. 24, Bethel Fire Hall; Thursday, Oct. 25, Woodstock Town Hall; Monday, Oct. 29, Newry Grange.

In conjunction with these hearings, questionnaires will be made available to the public at post offices, town offices, and grocery stores in each of the communities served by S. A. D. #44.

The testimony gathered at the hearings and the data from questionnaires will be used to prepare an advisory report on Basic Skills long range goals for the superintendent and board of directors.

Tuesday's Storm Brings First Snow

The Bethel area received its first blanket of white of the season on Tuesday of this week with the arrival of from three to four inches of wet snow in the village area. Reportedly there was a six inch accumulation at the Sunday River ski area.

WOODSTOCK HISTORICAL SOC. HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The first meeting of the Woodstock Historical Society was held Saturday evening, Oct. 6, in the Town Hall. About 30 people attended. Exhibits on town history were provided by Basil and Starr Seguin and Elden Hathaway. Larry Billings served as acting chairman. A steering committee was selected to draw up a constitution and nominate officers for the next meeting. A slide show of old scenes of the town was presented by Mary Billings. Some were taken from old stereoscopic slides of the town. Many of those attending were long-time residents of Bryant Pond and added much to the discussion. A time of socializing was enjoyed by all. It is hoped that even more residents and visitors will be in attendance at the next meeting the first Wednesday in November.

Children get a kick out of crawling into a pile of leaves, however, sometimes they forget that for their own safety they should stay away from leaves piled alongside of a road," said Col. Weeks.

In addition to piles of leaves along the roadway, motorists are reminded that rain-slick roads can be dangerous, especially during autumn.

"We ask each motorist to drive at reasonable speed at all times, and to reduce speed to fit conditions, especially on wet, leafy roads," Weeks said.

BETHEL HISTORICAL SOCIETY HOLDS ANNUAL "WHAT'S IT" MEETING

Approximately 50 members and guests attended the annual "What's It" meeting of the Bethel Historical Society last Thursday evening at the Moses Mason House. Chairwoman of the Program Committee Geraldine Howe brought each item to the attention of the audience for identification. Items ranged from obsolete telephone repair equipment to a yarn winder. Several items could not be identified by anyone present and further research will be necessary to determine the purpose.

Following the "what's it" portion of the program a film "To Communicate Is the Beginning" produced by American Telephone and Telegraph provided insights into the history of the telephone, telegraph, photograph, television, etc. An interesting segment focused on the Bryant Pond Telephone Company and Mr. and Mrs. Elden Hathaway who were present and who loaned the film for this showing.

During the business portion of the meeting Vice President Donald Bennett who presided in the absence of President Catherine Newell called attention to the availability of the Society's new cook book and to the fact that the organization would be hosting the annual meeting of the Maine Citizens for Historic Preservation on Oct. 13. He also announced that the next meeting will be the commemoration of the centennial of the Bethel Public Library with Margaret Joy Tibbitts presenting a historical paper for this milestone in the history of the community.

Refreshments were especially significant for this meeting since they were made following a recipe in the new cook book produced by the Society. Maxine Brown's chocolate refresher bars, Elizabeth Carter's peanut crunchies, Hazel Wheeler's hermit bars (made by Catherine Newell) and Floribel Haines' apple sauce cake were all enjoyed by everyone present.

DRUG ABUSE MEETINGS WILL START THIS MONTH

Who's responsibility is it to prevent drug abuse in our society and in our communities? Is alcohol a drug? What is the most abused drug in our communities? Who's problem is drug abuse—the kids, the parents?

As concerned citizens, we must band together to find the answers to these questions and then attack with vengeance these problems which are disrupting our towns, breaking up our families, killing our youth, disabling our citizens and draining our economy.

All concerned citizens of Bethel and surrounding areas are urged to attend one of two meetings being held to stimulate awareness of what our drug/alcohol problems are, and recognition that, we can begin to do something. The first thing to be done is for each of us to commit ourselves to becoming involved in positive action rather than idle despair that "it's terrible" and "something must be done." "Something" cannot be done by a few—each of us must do our own part.

The first meeting will be Monday, Oct. 15, 1979 at 7:30 p. m. at the Locke Mills Church (Sunday School Room). The second will be Wednesday, Oct. 17, at 7:30 p. m. in the Casco Bank, Bethel.

These meetings are being coordinated by the Stephens Memorial Hospital Education Dept., and the Oxford Hills Drug/Alcohol Team (D.A.T.O.H.). For further information call: Barbara Brown, 824-2446 or Martha Farrington, Bryant Pond 4 ring 12.

From the Bethel Town Office Review Summer Recreation Program

The 1979 Hunting Law books are now available at the Town Office. Regulations on trapping and guiding are available by writing the Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife, 284 State Street, Augusta, Maine 04333.

The Board of Selectmen met Monday evening, Oct. 8, at the Bethel Savings Bank and acted on a variety of items. Carolyn Holden and Dr. Wayne Gersen of the Recreation Board met with the Selectmen to review past summer programs. Mrs. Holden reported that both the swimming program and playground program were very successful but that more staff would be needed in future years to properly supervise the large number of children participating.

Mrs. Holden indicated that the basketball program at Telstar was not well attended and cited the distance from the village to Telstar as a contributing factor. Mrs. Holden indicated that the Recreation Board is considering instituting a soccer program next year to replace the basketball program.

The cross country ski program and skating rink will again this year be at Crescent Park School.

An invoice from DuBois and King for sewer planning work in the amount of $1,132.85 was approved.

A vacant position on the Safety

Committee was discussed and several names were suggested. Interviews will be arranged before any appointment is made.

Correspondence from Michael O'Donnell concerning the Selectmen's policy of not issuing concealed weapons permits was reviewed and the Manager was directed to write Mr. O'Donnell explaining in greater detail the reasons for the Board's action.

George Allen, Research Assistant, discussed with the Selectmen the various situations where street names are confusing and in need of clarification to help emergency services such as fire and ambulance, locate those in need of assistance. Considerable time was spent discussing each specific situation, with discussion to continue at the next meeting.

The Town Manager reviewed the West Bethel School property lines with the Board based on his research of old deeds. It was decided to have a plan of the property drawn which the Manager could review with abutting property owners and have recorded at the Oxford County Registry.

November meetings of the Selectmen will be Monday, Nov. 5, and Monday, Nov. 19. The next meeting of the Planning Board will be Wednesday evening, Oct. 17, at the Town Office.

Mrs. Muriel Taylor, Cor.
There was a Community Club meeting at the hall Oct. 3, and we were entertained by a heavy thunder shower and came home in the pouring rain. We didn't melt.

Mrs. Evelyn Chamberlain and Mrs. Beryl Oja went to C. M. M. C., Lewiston, Oct. 4 and brought Mrs. Adeline Stevens to her home. John Estes Jr. is a patient at Maine Medical Center, Portland, and had his other leg amputated three inches above the knee. We wish him a speedy recovery.

The Senior Citizens had a beautiful day at Fryeburg Fair. I took a lunch and Joe and I went on a short foliage ride. We picked up a hot barbecued chicken at Hathaway's Store and ate by the roadside. The foliage was beautiful and is dropping very fast due to the heavy rain.

Several went to Fryeburg Fair on Tuesday. It was Senior Citizens day. Others have gone on the other days, even in the rain.

Did everyone watch the baseball playoffs? Better than some of the TV programs lately.

Another long week end holiday, so will have more news next week. Have to mail early this week end.

Columbus Day week end already! Friday started out to be a cloudy, overcast day; but Frank stayed home to go around the mountains and as the weather report had said clearing later in the day we picked up Frank, III and Tinker and started out. We went by the Old Man of the Mountains and from there went onto the Kancamangus Highway; by this time it was a beautiful day, but think the leaf drop must have been 50%.

In fact it was prettier nearer the ground as the leaves had fallen and beeches; also the wind must not have swept nearer the ground so the shorter trees had their fall apparel. We had brought along food and stopped at a drive-out almost on the spot; but the cold drove us back to the car just as soon as we ate. The only heavy traffic we ran into was near the Fryeburg Fair gates. We came back through Evans Notch (which was better than our other views) and left Frankie off at his home in Gil-ead.

Saturday was a beautiful day and Ira played football and Frank went to the game in the afternoon. This was Telstar homecoming week end and understand there was a big crowd. After supper we started for my sister and husband's Mr. and Mrs. Don Holden's camp in Norway and spent the night. Not too far from the sandpits we came upon an accident and were told it was Larry Sweetser. The car was a total wreck. Sunday we could hear thunder around us all day. We left the Holdens' about noon and spent the rest of the day at my folks. Mr. and Mrs. George Allen. Last year at this time many families were out of water; but this year we have had plenty of rainfall. Monday we had winds all day.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Merrill from Sutton, Mass., were Saturday visitors to the step-mother, Mrs. Thea Merrill, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shimamura.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shimamura and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Shimamura went to Fryeburg Fair Saturday. It was almost impossible to find a parking spot.

Thursday Lester Butters took Leslie Lapham to the eye doctor in Lewiston and Friday, Gerry Shimamura took Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lapham to the eye doctor in Lewiston.

Mrs. Ruth Mason took care of her grandchildren, Jennifer and Chuck IV. Mason while their mother, Mrs. Kathie Mason was in the hospital having their baby sister, Meredith, born Oct. 2. The Charles Mason III family are all staying at Charles Mason Jr.'s until the baby is a little older.

Charlotte Thompson, Worcester, Mass., has gone home after spending two weeks with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown. They all went to Fryeburg Fair, Tuesday.

Andy Benson was home from UMO on the week end and visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown and had Sunday dinner with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Angevine and family went to Fryeburg Fair and Sheri Angevine went to Fryeburg Fair Saturday morning for the parade. School bands were competing, Saturday afternoon Sheri played in band at Telstar. Sue Angevine, Timmy and Kristy also went to Telstar football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson went to Fryeburg Fair one day and went to dance at Locke Mills Saturday evening. Besides Andy they had for Sunday dinner Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson Jr. and Chris, from Augusta and Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Benson from Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hannon and two girls, went to Fryeburg Fair Friday and Telstar football game Saturday. Telstar won.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith and Andy, went to the fair Saturday.

Robert Saunders surprised his family when he came up from his studies in Rhode Island by bus on Friday. The Hudson's took him back to the bus depot in Lewiston Monday, as their daughter, Patty, who goes to the same college, also came home by bus Friday. While Robert was home, he and Ira Gibson went to the fair Friday night and Sunday Robert went to visit Mr. and Mrs. Billy Shimamura.

Mrs. Leslie Lapham went to U. M. W. meeting at Eleanor Parsons' at Songo Pond Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gilbert have put light green siding onto their house and have white trim and shutters.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gibbs have been working on their yard from the road to their house and it looks much better.

Everyone is very excited to be in full swing with the Head Start and Day Care children this fall. David Rainey is the happy Star of the Week.

A volunteer is needed to drive Head Start children home a couple of days a week and mileage will be paid; also, the staff would enjoy having any Senior Citizen volunteer an hour or two a week in the classroom. The grandparent image is very important to children.

Bethel Savings, your Neighborhood Bank offers you interesting, flexible ways to save for the 80's: Savings Certificates that earn 8 1/2% annual interest and require a minimum deposit of only $500.

Interesting: because interest is compounded continuously and paid monthly.

Flexible: because you choose the term of your certificate, from 4 years to 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 or 10 years; and that means you can plan your financial future with more confidence.

8 1/2% annual interest, plus a choice of 7 different savings terms. That's interesting. That's flexible. That's sensible—that's your Neighborhood Bank.

Commercial banks are not permitted to pay these high rates. This rate is effective through October 31, 1979. Federal regulations require a substantial penalty for early withdrawals from Savings Certificates.

Everyone is very excited to be in full swing with the Head Start and Day Care children this fall. David Rainey is the happy Star of the Week.

A volunteer is needed to drive Head Start children home a couple of days a week and mileage will be paid; also, the staff would enjoy having any Senior Citizen volunteer an hour or two a week in the classroom. The grandparent image is very important to children.

SAVE ENERGY AND SAVE MONEY.

Here's Casco Banks' four-way plan to help.

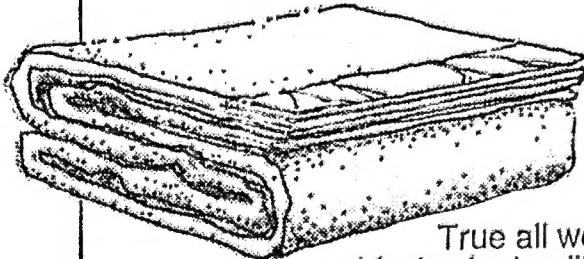

1. The "save energy" catalog.

With our sponsorship, the Maine Audubon Society has prepared a comprehensive catalog of things you can do to save energy and save money. It is packed with helpful and interesting information. As long as our supplies last, you can pick up a FREE copy at any office of the bank that's always thinking.

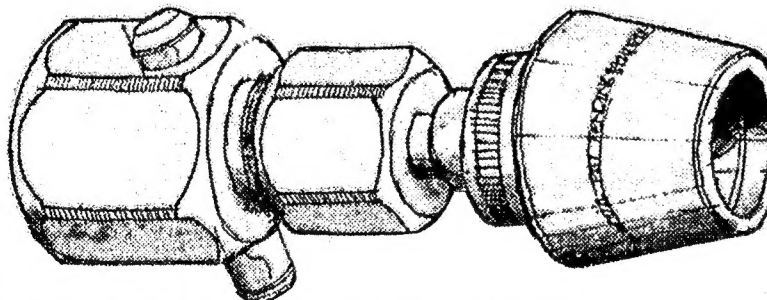

2. Premiums, too!

This is not the typical china or silverware offer! These are special energy-saving premiums and they're available FREE or at well below regular retail price, depending on the premium you choose and the type and size of your deposit. They are recommended by the Maine Audubon Society, leaders in energy conservation. And because they help you save energy, they'll save you money month after month — year in, year out! Supplies are limited.

100% Wool
Chatham
Blanket

True all wool quality that lasts and lasts. And unlike "synthetics" this North Star Zephyr from Chatham will help keep you comfortably warm on cold winter nights even with your thermostat set back. A special purchase permits us to offer them at an amazingly low price.

CON-SERV Nova low-flow shower head

A real money saver that cuts hot water usage from about 5 gallons per minute to about 2 gallons a minute. Because it works differently from simple devices that merely reduce water flow, you still enjoy your shower. Nova's finer spray actually increases water pressure. Its instant ON/OFF button lets you conserve while soaping without disturbing water temperature adjustment. Available to you at well below the normal price, and pays for itself in less than a year.

Energy-Savers/ Outlet Insulation Pads (Set of 8)

Place pads behind electrical outlet plates on all outside walls. Insert plugs should be placed in any outlet openings not in use. You'll block out the cold air and keep in the warm. Even at the regular retail price they pay for themselves in about six months.

Polycel One Foam Insulation Barrier.

Seals, insulates and cauls. Dis-penses like shaving cream. One can covers as much area as 15 tubes of caulking compound (175 running feet). Easy to apply around window casings and sills to cut heat loss. You get your money back in lower heating bills in the first season.

3. "How to save energy" lecture series.

With Casco Bank's sponsorship, the Maine Audubon Society will present a series of three lectures at various Maine locations. They will feature practical solutions to home energy problems. Don't miss them. Lecture dates and locations will be announced. Each series of lectures will feature these topics:

Wood Heat — The emphasis will be on buying the right stove; chimney and stove maintenance and safety; selecting, preparing and storing wood; avoiding creosote problems and chimney fires; the pros and cons of central wood furnace systems vs. room-type stoves.

Insulating Your Old Home — A discussion of insulation types and uses; vapor barriers and how to use them; selecting a contractor and how to know if he did a good job; what are your insulation priorities if money is tight.

Solar Energy: What's Practical for Maine? — We will concentrate on older homes and what can be done. From solar domestic hot water systems to such things as sun-catching greenhouse collectors. The basics of passive solar energy systems and heat storage will be explained.

4. Lower loan rates for energy-saving home improvements.

To help you save energy and money, we will reduce loan rates from now through December on home improvement loans which meet certain energy conservation guidelines.

We strongly recommend that you arrange for an energy audit of your home which will provide you with information about your energy usage as well as specific, cost-efficient recommendations on how you can use less energy.

Check with us first. We'll tell you how to arrange for an energy audit and if you qualify, the cost of your audit can be included in your reduced rate home improvement loan.

NEWS FROM S. A. D. #44 ADULT EDUCATION
On Nov. 1, the Natural History class, taught by Don Feeney of the Gould Academy faculty will begin, offered through S. A. D. #44's Adult and Community Education Program. This will be a 15 hour course, given over a five week period on Thursday evenings. Those interested may register by calling the Adult Education Office at Telstar (824-2136).

Highlights of some of the on-going Adult Education courses during the past two weeks have been the viewing of the classic film "All Quiet on the Western Front," by Rod Abbott's history class, the creation of patchwork and braided wreaths and stuffed bell ornaments in Christmas Crafts, and an oriental cooking demonstration by Barbara Brown in the Foods Lab.

Both Exercise Dance and Cake Decorating have split into two sections. Dance adding a Monday morning section at the Gould girls' gym and Cake Decorating a Tuesday evening section in Andover. The Exercise class in Andover has switched to Thursday evenings. Interest has developed over the past week in both Parenting and the evening Yoga section and both courses are in progress on Monday at the Woodstock School and the Bethel Library respectively.

Although the Fall term has just begun, plans are in the works for spring term courses, and possible mini-courses during the late fall and winter. Anyone with suggestions to offer may contact Adult and Community Education Director Cathy Newell. Mrs. Newell will be reaching mornings at Telstar or at home.

LOCAL MAN WINS DAY CARE RAFFLE

John Hatfield of Albany is a happy man. He just won $65 worth of groceries plus assorted other prizes in the raffle held Oct. 4 by Diocesan Human Relations Services Family Day Care Program. The winning ticket was #2149 and was sold by Dino's Restaurant in Rumford Center.

The money from the raffle is earmarked for a comprehensive medical/accident insurance policy for the 200 children in the Day Care Homes associated with the Program.

The drawing was made by Carolyn Davis, Director of the Program. Staff were not eligible to win. It was one of two drawings, one in Oxford County and one in Androscoggin County.

Local grocery stores, including the IGA in Bethel, Yankee Grocer in Locke Mills, Sampson's in Rumford and Food Town in Rumford, as well as private individuals, donated food, which ranged from apples to canned beans to home-baked pies. Food certificates were donated by Shaw's and R & R Superette in Sabattus.

OLYMPIA SNOWE From Congress

One of the more complex and controversial issues we face as we approach the 1980's centers on our future use and future dependence on nuclear power as an energy source. Currently, approximately 12% of our nation's electrical energy production comes from nuclear power plants. And, in Maine, we depend on nuclear energy for about 38% of our electrical needs. During the past several years, opposition to nuclear power—and to our increased reliance on it as an energy source—has become more vocal and more organized. The incident earlier this year at the Three Mile Island nuclear generating facility near Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, has provided a new focal point around which opponents to nuclear power have both rallied and attempted to gather new converts to their cause. And, certainly since the Three Mile Island incident, the opponents to nuclear power have been successful—at the very least—in pushing for a serious reexamination of America's commitment to nuclear energy in the years ahead.

In the responses I received to a questionnaire I sent to residents in the Second Congressional District this past May, it was evident that Maine people were asking questions about nuclear energy. In that constituent survey, to which I received about 6,500 responses, no clear consensus emerged about future commitment to nuclear power. Of those people responding, 49% said we should build more nuclear power plants while 51% opposed further construction, and on the question of whether or not there should be a moratorium on building nuclear plants, 52% said there should be while 48% said there should not be such a policy.

In determining the future of nuclear power, there are obviously differing opinions. The more radical opponents of nuclear energy are advocating that we should not only prohibit the construction of additional nuclear power plants but that we should also shut down the more than 70 facilities currently operating in the United States. Others, including a growing number of my colleagues in Congress, are advocating moratoriums of various durations on any new nuclear plant construction. Still others are suggesting a myriad of new safety precautions to govern the nuclear industry.

In my judgment, it is imperative that we proceed with extreme caution and extreme care on nuclear energy. At the present time, a special presidential study commission is analyzing the entire Three Mile Island incident, and I am hopeful that their report will provide not only some needed answers but some suggested direction on our future use of nuclear power as well. Until that report is completed, I think it would be premature to make any definitive judgments on the course we should pursue on nuclear energy in the years ahead.

However, I do believe we should begin now to address certain safety questions in regard to nuclear power. First, we should make certain that states design evacuation plans to respond to possible nuclear accidents. Second, we must improve the ability of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission to monitor nuclear safety. And, thirdly and perhaps most importantly, we can afford to wait no longer in developing a comprehensive national program to safely dispose of nuclear waste materials.

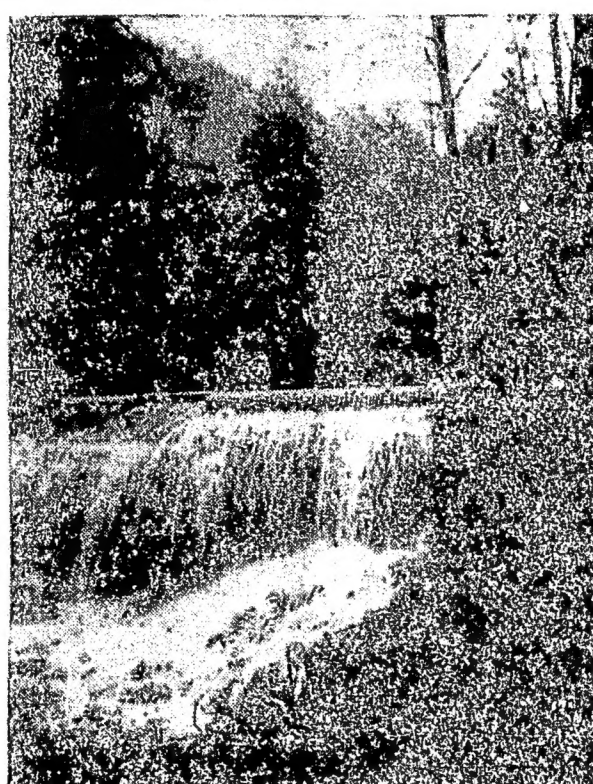

In regard to the nuclear waste disposal situation, I believe it is critically important that we make every effort to make certain that nuclear wastes are safely disposed. In my judgment, there remain unanswered questions regarding nuclear waste disposal, questions

The winner in Androscoggin County was Julia Schnur of Sabattus with ticket #2437.

ON KEEPING WARM—On Wednesday following the Bethel Senior Citizens dinner at the Odd Fellows Hall, Laura Hale of the Western Maine Energy Center, Farmington, spoke to the group on health, exercising and keeping warm during

NEW PROCEDURES IMPROVE WATER QUALITY FOR DISTRICT CUSTOMERS

The heavy rain of Wednesday night, Oct. 3, typically threatened the quality of water supplied for the Bethel Water District's customers from the Chapman Brook reservoir which became saturated with leaves, small sticks and other particles suspended in the water. However, new procedures adopted by the Water District Superintendent Richard Enright should virtually eliminate any of this particle saturated water from entering kitchen water taps in Bethel.

The new procedure simply involves "turning off" the reservoir and relying on the alternate reservoir at Paradise Hill until the turbulent water settles—usually 24-36 hours.

Water quality is always a problem for small water utilities such as Bethel's. Particles in the water cause discoloration, and unpleasant tastes and odors. Bethel residents have experienced this occurrence which if left unanswered will themselves cast enormous shadows of doubt on the wisdom of our existing reliance on nuclear power and of our commitment to it in the future. Presently pending before Congress are many proposals which would address this matter, and I am hopeful we will act expeditiously in committing ourselves to the development of a comprehensive and safe waste disposal plan.

The decisions we make over the next few years in regard to nuclear power may in large measure determine the direction we pursue in developing a national energy policy and plan. Certainly, we must do everything possible to make sure we have sufficient energy to meet our needs. Obviously, we can not abandon nuclear power without developing alternatives to take its place. And, if we should choose to move away from nuclear power, we may very well be forced to accept significantly higher energy costs. The choices will indeed be difficult, but I am hopeful that we are now making the commitment to seek the answers we need to make logical and reasoned decisions on the future of nuclear power.

HEAVY RAINS on Wednesday night, Oct. 3, in the Bethel area caused the Water District's main reservoir to overflow and increased water turbulence which saturates the reservoir with tiny particles.

In their water supply too frequently to mention. Even though the water is tested daily for an acceptable, safe level of turbidity (particles), testing does not solve the problem of particle matter which has entered the public's water supply at its source. Thus, a settling period procedure was adopted early this summer.

So much debris from Chapman Brook enters the reservoir throughout the year that a large mound accumulates in the middle of the reservoir which requires removal every one or two years. This summer P. H. Chadbourn & Co. contracted for the reservoir cleaning operation and, in the opinion of the district's trustees and superintendent, the job was accomplished efficiently and at a very favorable cost to the district.

leaves and debris carried into the Chapman Brook reservoir by the rain swollen brook last week. Screens located in the shed behind Bright are overtaxed when reservoir turbulence adds excessive particle matter to the water supply. Debris also accumulates into a sizable mound which must be periodically removed with heavy equipment.

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST
The great ocean liners of yesterday flying the Cunard flag had a slogan—getting there is half the fun. These Queens of the Atlantic provided a luxurious mode of travel—and from departure to arrival there was continuous gaiety and festivity. The passengers in a merry mood anticipated their arrival at a distant land where loved ones would heartily welcome them.

Being a Christian, having received Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour—being "born again"—John 3:3, we can journey through life—even with troubles and trials, complete in the knowledge that one day as our earthly existence terminates we will safely arrive at that place where our beloved Lord and Master will greet us and say—"well done, thou good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, enter thou into the joy of our Lord." Matt. 25:31.

Being a Christian—living a life as Christ desires of us can be a victorious and fulfilling adventure. Truly experiencing the slogan—getting there is half the fun. With Christ as Captain of our ship. Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On behalf of the administrative office of The New Maine Publicity Bureau, I would like to thank everyone who had a hand in the successful operation of the Bethel Information Center during our recent summer season. Appreciation is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hamel, and to Donald G. Bennett, President of the Bethel Chamber of Commerce, for their efforts in what proved to be a very trying and somewhat complex period during the first few weeks of operation. To the Bethel Historical Society and its Director, Stan Howe, also goes our thanks for the use of Society furnishings and equipment. A very special thanks goes to Marlene Marshall and Carolyn S. Campbell for allowing us to use a portion of their West Bethel site as our temporary summer location. Their cooperation and patience in what was often a frustrating scene is deeply appreciated. Finally, I would like to thank Ms. Darlene S. Snyder, assistant information officer, for her thoughtful service during the summer.

I wish the Center staff of 1980 the best of luck and encourage continued support for this extremely important venture.

These Queens of the Atlantic provided a luxurious mode of travel—and from departure to arrival there was continuous gaiety and festivity. The passengers in a merry mood anticipated their arrival at a distant land where loved ones would heartily welcome them.

Being a Christian, having received Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour—being "born again"—John 3:3, we can journey through life—even with troubles and trials, complete in the knowledge that one day as our earthly existence terminates we will safely arrive at that place where our beloved Lord and Master will greet us and say—"well done, thou good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, enter thou into the joy of our Lord." Matt. 25:31.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On behalf of the administrative office of The New Maine Publicity Bureau, I would like to thank everyone who had a hand in the successful operation of the Bethel Information Center during our recent summer season. Appreciation is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hamel, and to Donald G. Bennett, President of the Bethel Chamber of Commerce, for their efforts in what proved to be a very trying and somewhat complex period during the first few weeks of operation. To the Bethel Historical Society and its Director, Stan Howe, also goes our thanks for the use of Society furnishings and equipment. A very special thanks goes to Marlene Marshall and Carolyn S. Campbell for allowing us to use a portion of their West Bethel site as our temporary summer location. Their cooperation and patience in what was often a frustrating scene is deeply appreciated. Finally, I would like to thank Ms. Darlene S. Snyder, assistant information officer, for her thoughtful service during the summer.

I wish the Center staff of 1980 the best of luck and encourage continued support for this extremely important venture.

Office Manager

TELSTAR WINS FOURTH GRID CONTEST OF YEAR

—MARANACOOK BLANKED 24-0
Telstar upped its football record to 4-1 with a 24-0 shutout over visiting Maranacook Saturday.

Telstar scored all it really needed in the second period when Doug Webster tossed a 48-yard touchdown pass to Mark Bean. Rusty Van Deursen rushed for the two-point conversion.

The next Rebel touchdown occurred in the final quarter on another Webster pass. This time he hit Jeff Hastings from six yards out. Van Deursen again ran for the conversion. Chip Cayer recovered a fumble late in the game for the final Telstar score.

The Telstar defense held Maranacook to minus six yards on the ground. Linebackers Tony Butters and Russ Palmer and tackle Brian Tibbetts were standouts.

GOULD IS 1-0 SOCCER WINNER OVER OAK GROVE-COBBURN
Peter Brennan's second period goal gave Gould Academy a 1-0 soccer win over visiting Oak Grove-Coburn, Saturday.

EDUCATION - NURSERY SCHOOL CENSUS SURVEY TO BE CONDUCTED IN AREA

A sample of households in this area will be included in an annual survey on education to be taken the week of Oct. 15-19 by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce.

Arthur G. Dukakis, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Boston, says that interviewers will visit homes to obtain information about current school enrollment from nursery school through college. This information helps measure current trends in education and helps determine the need for additional or expanded educational facilities. The questions on education will supplement those asked regularly in the monthly survey on employment and unemployment conducted nationwide by the Bureau for the U. S. Department of Labor.

Results of the monthly employment survey provide data on conditions in the labor force, prime indicators of the economic health of the country. For example, in August the survey indicated that of the 103.0 million men and women in the civilian labor force, 96.9 million were employed. The Nation's unemployment rate was 6.0%, up from 5.7% in July.

Personal information supplied in the survey is kept strictly confidential by law and results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Remember — you can save yourself much time and trouble if you: (a) wait until late November before attempting to purchase your 1980 license, and (b) make sure you have the correct amount of money for the license desired.

SHIMAMURA - VANDEURSEN

Mr. and Mrs. William Shimamura

The marriage of Betsy Ann Vandeurden to William Shimamura took place at West Parish Congregational Church in Bethel on Sept. 8, 1979, with the Rev. Thomas Caton officiating in the double ring ceremony. Music was provided by John Smith at the piano and Cathy Littlefield, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nancy Plante of Mexico and John Vandeurden of Bethel. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ryozo Shimamura of Northwest Bethel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a polyester knit gown featuring an empire waistline, Queen Anne collar and slim sleeves trimmed with Venise lace and a scattering of seed pearls. The A-line skirt ended in a chapel train. Venise lace edged her illusion Mantilla veil on a comb trimmed with Venise lace appliques. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow, white and brown poms and carnations with baby's breath.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Marcia Walen of Rockland who wore a floor length gown of brown silk with accented pleats and matching ribbon straps featuring an empire waistline. Similar gowns in deep turquoise were worn by the bridesmaids, Alberta Smith and Kelli Flynn of Bethel and Carol Lee (Tinka) Martin of Bryant Pond. They carried an arrangement of yellow and white carnations with ribbon streamers and baby's breath in arm bouquets.

Barry Martin of Bryant Pond served as best man. Ushers were Russell Vandeurden, Jody Shimamura and Michael Friel, all of Bethel. All were attired in tan and brown tuxedos.

A reception at the Legion Hall in Bethel followed the ceremony. Kevin Vandeurden supervised the guest book and Kara Flynn and Wendy Hurst supervised the gift display.

Mr. and Mrs. Shimamura will reside on Vernon Street in Bethel after a brief wedding trip to Rockland, Maine.

Both the bride and groom received their educations at Telstar Regional High School in Bethel. The groom is currently employed at the Bethel Inn.

TELSTAR BAND COMPLETES BUSY WEEK END — Starting on last Thursday the Telstar Band had three performances in as many days. Thursday started with a two and a half hour rehearsal on the football and parade fields followed by the Homecoming Parade in Bethel at 5:30 and the bonfire at 8:15.

On Saturday, the band left early for the Fryeburg Fair Parade. There they placed fourth out of eight bands behind such bands as Old Orchard, Sacopee Valley and Oxford Hills.

Rather than remaining to see the fair with the other bands, Telstar came back home to the Homecoming football game and with tired legs, arms, and lips took to the field for an excellent half-time show.

The band's next outings will be the football game on Saturday, Nov. 3, and the Veterans' Day Parade, Sunday, Nov. 11, in Locke Mills.

Sent in by Eva Yates:
Another Monday and as they used to say it's "open and shut" a sign of wet. So far we have not seen too much of October's bright blue weather. It just may be with all this rain now we may not have so much ice this winter. We will wait and time will tell.

Yours truly has been on the go so much this past week or more I've not had time to hang my coat in the closet. I've kept it hanging on a chair close to the door.

Monday night Peg Joe and I went to Franklin Grange to Olive's best program of the year. It was all good old country music. Tuesday all hands were busy cooking for the Pomona supper, followed by installation of officers with Francis Conant and staff installers. Francis always does a good job. I think we were home all day Wednesday, believe it or not.

Thursday Joe and I went to Oxford and had a nice dinner and visited with a couple of cousins, Martha and Elvira Birney.

Friday Peggy Blake spent the day in Lewiston shopping and seeing the eye doctor.

Saturday we left early for New Hampshire, where we did Christmas shopping and such and called on the restaurant in West Bethel for a late dinner. Sunday, we joined Bernard and Laura Hutchins and Robbie Adams and went to Errol, N. H., for a birthday dinner.

Verna Swan called on the Yates on Friday.

Bear River Grange meets at their hall on Oct. 13 for a gay old time. Come dressed as a hobo and bring your own lunch in a paper bag or what not! Halloween is coming soon so don't forget your "Hobo" costume or else! Come one, come all—there's going to be a hot time at the old Grange Hall.

Oct. 9—and it is snowing for the first time.

Myrna Carter and girls called on her mother, Peggy Blake, Monday P. M.

Enough for now. Keep warm if you can. It won't be long till you can dig out the skis.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Cellista Morgan, Corres. —

Outside, the sun shone down as it had done since I rose. I climbed up Noyes Mountain to where I could see the whole valley as it sparkled and shone with reflected colors. The hardwoods were blazing and a shower of diamonds, which might have dropped during the night glittered from the waters. I looked again in wide eyed amazement at Nature's great masterpiece. It was a wide spreading panorama broken here and there by towering stands of spruce and pine. The ponds dozed untripped under the sun's golden cloak. All the mountains around borrowed beauty from surrounding hills and sat majestically at the edge of that crazy quilt of many colors. Overset Mountain, a thing of rare beauty towered with hunched shoulders and lowered head above the painted trees crowded at its feet. I could not see, but pictured the blue of the pond, the bluffs above it and the heart shaped shore opposite.

I have taken a jaunt through the woods to view it several times this summer and I have climbed over its massive back. I have seen it under many conditions; brooding in the rain, resplendent in the sun. But I never tire of looking at it. Old? Yes, but strangely fascinating and today more beautiful than ever.

The sandy flanked roads with green-tinted centers also hold interest during autumn days. Some are weedy or rutted trails winding back, past a gravel pit or an abandoned farm.

Ruth and I took one of these one day for a short but colorful outing. It was a quiet and mysterious ribbon that curled across Turtle Bridge then between walls of woods. We moved along and flushed a partridge. We had had no thought of birds for at this point there was a sun flooded lane through a leafy tunnel of blazing red maples. It is always hard for us to hold back before another bend. We always want to see what is around it.

At times we stood in silence and occasionally a leaf surrendered to autumn, lost its grip and tumbled down.

The hills, the colors, and beauty made me feel so small; like a speck of dust that could be swept away in a second.

The sun was now well down a distant mountain and the land in between was covered with a strange veil of gray.

As we came again through the environment of beauty, we turned again and again, to admire the corridor of color through which we had passed. It was the greatest of art galleries, this great outdoors.

When we returned home, the sun was settling down toward the western mountains and soon pulled up its covers for the night.

Since then the rains have come, the colors have faded, and many leaves have dropped. Our fall is on the way out until another year.

Joy Hayes Phillips came from New York on Friday, also her son, Chris, to spend several days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rolly Hayes.

Week end callers there were

CIRCUIT RIDING MEETING
IN BETHEL TONIGHT (OCT. 11)

The final meeting of the Circuit Rider Project in Bethel will be held on Thursday, Oct. 11 (tonight), at 7 p. m. in the Library at Telstar Regional High School. The project has sponsored community forums in Bethel over the past six months, with the goal of increasing community communication, discussing trends and values in the community, and considering their implications for the future.

During the forums three topics surfaced as major areas of discussion: youth, a declining sense of "community", and leadership. At tonight's meeting two faculty members from the University of Maine at Farmington will be leading the discussion and will be providing some observations on these issues from the perspective of their humanistic training. All are welcome to attend.

Harry and Bernice Moore, Goshen, Conn., spent the week end with their son Marc Moore and family.

Gertrude Harrington, North Berwick, is visiting Maude Harrington for a few days. They went to supper at Ralph and Estelle Harrington's, Sunday River, on Thursday evening to celebrate Gabe's birthday and Gabe and Linda's anniversary.

Mindy Wilson also celebrated her birthday Thursday with a family party at her home. It was her twelfth.

Those attending Fryeburg fair were: Bob and Mona Lower, Marc Leslie, Nathan, Harry and Bernice Moore; Linda James and Brant Remington, Denny, Rita, Mindy and David Wilson.

Earl, the boys and I visited Doug and Yvonne Colby in Farmington, N. H., on Friday. Brian said the foliage on the hills looked like a box of Tix.

Speaking of foliage, it seems inappropriate to have snow when there are still leaves on the trees. A cat was seen pulling fish from the brook last week. They were consumed too fast to check them for legal length. But since the cat didn't have a license and the brook is closed, the cat and owner shall remain nameless to protect the gully.

HELP MEET OCT. 3

The World War I Barracks and Auxiliary #2943 met at the Legion Hall for their regular monthly meeting on Oct. 3. First on the agenda was the draping of the charter for beloved sister Cora Bennett.

The business meeting was then called to order. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and approved. State officers, President Marie Wilson and Past President Blanch Burk were introduced. Each were presented gifts from the President.

A reception will be held at Bangor Oct. 21 for State President Marie Wilson.

Scheduled is a Council meeting at Fairfield Center Oct. 12. Ten members are expected to attend from the group.

It was voted to send Mabel Robertson a gift card from the Auxiliary.

GUARD TODDLERS FROM HOME ACCIDENTS

Think small—to help prevent your toddler from becoming one of the thousands killed in home accidents annually, advise the Maine State Police.

"A pocketbook or a briefcase left on the floor or table could result in a child picking up and swallowing keys, safety pins, pens, and lighters; thus, parents are urged to adopt the perspective of a small child and take a look around the house and yard to avoid potential tragedy to their toddler," said Colonel Allen H. Weeks, Chief of the Maine State Police.

Weeks said parents are advised to keep nuts and hard candies out of reach of toddlers, since many youngsters often choke on hard candy and nuts. Keep matchboxes and filled ashtrays away, too.

According to the State Police Chief, the U. S. Public Health Service reports that one cigarette can kill a child under one if he chews and swallows it.

Although childproof pill and prescription bottles have cut down on poisonings, there are lotions and compounds that if not put out of reach can make a baby quite sick. Peroxide, rubbing alcohol, laxatives, and shoe polish are a few items to keep out of reach.

Also, aftershave, astringents, ammonia or cleaning sprays should not be left on the top of the toilet tank.

In the kitchen, use the back burners for cooking. Avoid tablecloths that a child could grab, pulling down food, utensils and glassware on top of him—use place mats instead.

If an accident does occur, Weeks advises know whom to call for help. Tape a list of emergency numbers to the phone. Include the hospital, fire department, police and ambulance.

According to the State Police Chief, "Knowing what to do when an accident happens can save your child's life."

HEALTH EDUCATION
AWARENESS HIGH DURING
S.A.D. 44 FACULTY WORKSHOP

Health Education Awareness in M. S. A. D. #44 was high last Friday afternoon as district teachers participated in a workshop on that subject. Several upper level teachers participated in a demonstration and practice of the cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) technique while others took part in a simulation game in which they took the roles of persons affected by chronic illness and the members of the health care delivery system that those persons must deal with in order to function with their disease. The game was designed to be fun, but also to make participants aware of the difficulties and frustrations living with a serious illness entails. Kindergarten through six teachers heard a presentation by Dr. Tony Manna of the University of Maine at Farmington on "Health Topics in Children's Literature."

Formal and informal inservice training for teachers is a part of the effort to implement health instruction into the classroom at M.S.A.D. #44. The workshop was organized by Mary Ann Stork, Health Education Coordinator and members of the community who are interested in the project should contact her at 824-2582.

PUBLIC AGAIN REMINDED OF
"JUNKYARD" PERMIT

The Maine State Police advise residents who are storing three or more unusable motor vehicles on their property that they may be in violation of the law.

"People who keep three or more unserviceable, discarded, worn-out or junked motor vehicles without an 'automobile graveyard' or 'junkyard' permit may be fined and/or jailed," said Col. Allan H. Weeks, Chief of the Maine State Police.

Weeks referred to Maine law (Title 30, sec. 2451 & 2452) that says a landowner must obtain a nontransferable permit from municipal officers, or in the case of unorganized townships from the county commissioners, before such "automobile graveyard" or "junkyard" may be established, operated or maintained.

A person not having such a permit shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, imprisoned for not more than 90 days, or both. Each day the violation continues constitutes a separate offense.
